

Commissioner Kyser is 65 years old and has been married to his wife, Sue, for 45 years. They have two daughters. The Kysers bought land in Holden Beach in 1994, purchased their home in 1996 and lived here part-time from 1997 until they moved here full-time in 2000 from Sanford, NC.

Commissioner Kyser served for 10 years in the U. S. Navy as a nuclear submarine electrician. He retired after 25 years with Progress Energy (formerly CP&L), where he was Supervisor of Plant Operations and Maintenance. Commissioner Kyser was also the Planning Supervisor at Shearon Harris Nuclear Plant and held a Senior Reactor Operators License. For 10 years he was Operations Shift Supervisor. As the Site Emergency Coordinator, Commissioner Kyser held the enterprise's financial stability in his hands and made decisions in times of emergency and crisis that had potential major financial impact. He is trained and knows how to make those kind of decisions.
